PARK GROUNDS

Freedom Hill County Park has almost 100 acres of spacious, beautiful parkland. Mingling throughout the park visitors can enjoy covered pavilions, picnic areas, barbeque grills, a nature trail, military displays, the Metro Parkway Hike and Bike Trail, a 4,000 seat Amphitheatre, a playscape, volley ball area, rest rooms and the Ralph A. Liberato Hall.

PARK EVENTS

Freedom Hill County Park can host almost any function. Summer seasons usually include a variety of ethnic festivals, car shows, church festivals, concerts and Outdoor Markets every Wednesday. Organizations, businesses and families can rent the grounds for private or public events.

RALPH A. LIBERATO HALL

The Ralph A. Liberato Hall, in the Independence Building, can accommodate 250 people for banquets, conferences, or seminars. Organizations, businesses and families can rent the hall for private or public functions. The hall has held weddings, showers, seminars, hearing and vision testing, emergency aid meetings, commission meetings, craft shows, dances, dance classes, and much more.

AMPHITHEATRE

The outside amphitheatre is managed by Hillside Productions. The Amphitheatre has 4,000 seats which are now covered by a rooftop, and 3,000 lawn seats. This state-of-the-art facility has quickly spread around the entertainment industry as one of the most up-close and intimate venues in the country. The Amphitheatre area includes a midway with concessions, rest rooms, the Hillside Club for season ticket holders with food and refreshments from Andiamo Italia, and a hospitality tent available for private parties.

LOCATION

The park is located at 15000 Metropolitan Parkway in Sterling Heights between Utica and Schoenherr Roads. (586) 979-7010; www.freedomhillcountypark.com.
